Good counsel for a wife and mother: i will try to make myself and all around me agreeable. It will not do to leave a man to himself till he comes to you; to take no pains to attract him, or to appear before him with a long face. It is not so difficult as you think, dear child, to behave to a husband so that he shall remain forever a husband. I am an old woman, but you can still do what you like; a word from you at the right time will not fail of its effect; what need of you to play the suffering virtue? The tear of a loving girl, says an old book, is like a dew-drop on a rose; but that on the cheek of a wife is a drop of pain to her husband. Try to appear cheerful and contented, and your husband will be so; and when you have made him happy, you will become so in reality. Nothing flatters a man so much as the happiness of his wife; he is always proud of himself as being the source of it. As soon as you are cheerful you will be lively and alert and every mo ment will afford you an opportunity to let fall an agreeable word. Your education, which gives you an immense advantage, will greatly assist you; and your sensibility will become the noblest gift that nature has bestowed on you,

THE Republican reporter for the past few days has been devoting his tashionable attention to spring styles for gentlemen. So far as he has observed, a plug hat draws to the wearer the attention of the entire population. When a cano is carried, low muterings are heard along Main street. Upon the addition of eyo-glasses to this outfit a mob begins organizing, and upon the appearance of kid gloves the execution takes place.—Enrelsa, Neb., Republican.

OUT OF TUNE.

When the tones of a musical instrument become harsh and discordant, we say it is "out of tune." The same may be said of that far more wonderful and complicated piece of mechanism, the human structure, when it becomes disordered --Not only actual disease, but those far more common causes, overwork, mental unxiety, and fast living, may impair its vigor and activity. The best remedy for a partial collapse of the vital energies, from these as from other causes, is Hos tetter's Stomach Bitters, which is at the same time an agreeable and sand-cheer ing cordial, and the best possibe invigorant in all cases of debility. It is an in comparable stomachic and anti-bilious medicine, eradicates fever and ague, and prevents subsequent attacks. WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON SERRION.

The convention was called to order by President - Thompson. Singing, Draw me nearer. Reeding scriptures. Rev. M. Groves. Prayer, Rev. Robinson. Singing, "To the Work."

Reports from .committees being in order, the committee to which was reforred the report of the executive committiee, presented a written report, which was made by E. D. Wells, of ( hicago, as follows :

Mr. PRESIDENT : Your committee to whom was referred the report of the Executive Committee of this Association, beg leave to submit the follow-

I We approve the report as a whole and recommend its adoption by the convention, at the same time expressing our hearty appreciation of the efficient manner in which the committee has discharged the duties of the year.

II. By way of special emphasis we desire to call particular attention to a few points in that report .

I We heartily endorse the recommendation of the committee which approves of the action of our delegates to the convention recently held at Atlanta, Georgia, pledging $200 to the International Sunday School Association, and we carnestly unite in the speeral request in our executive communit tee's report, that $75 of that amount which was voluntarily assumed by our delegates be returned to Bro. E. Payson Porter, as a partial compensation for his very efficient labors as International Statistical Secretary

We further recommend to the Inter national Association that the International Statistical Secretary be employed at a fixed salary, which shall be a reasonable compensation for the work performed, and we pledge the State of Illinois for the payment of our proper portion of that amount.

2. We especially endorse that part of the report which recommends, so far as possible, the fixing of the time and place for holding the district convention, by the delegates while in attendunce at this convention.

3. We recommend that the executive committee make provision for scaling workers to aid weak or unorganized counties, and for this purpose that they be authorized when necessary, to use such funds as many be in the to coury of our state association for the pay ment of the expenses of such workers.

Your committee would also recommend that a contribution be solicited from every county in the state for the state work, the minimum amount of which shall be one half cent per mem ber contributing, at the same time, urging the countries to 'provoke one another to good works in the liberality of their contributions in excess of the henten nur municipal

C. M. Moron, of Chicago, spoke on Sunday School Work Furnished with Gospel of Christ. We should be care-Qualified Teachers." Mr. Morton said that the great essential of qualified teachers was study. He never saw a teacher who studied to understand the word of God who failed as a teacher. He said the teacher should study to be approved of Godshould study so as not to be askamed. The success of the Sunday school depended upon the toucher. The teacher must have character - what he thinks himself to be,-he must have reputation-what other people think him to be. Then we must have converted teachers. The time for unconverted teachers, if there over was such a time. is now past. But if christian men and women do their duty, there will be no need for them. We may have teachers not well qualified, but all must be beginners, and if the heart is filled with the grace of God, we need not fear for resalts. He believed that the matter of qualifications was more that of the heart than the head.

He said after reading some of the statistics presented to his convention, he was more hopeful for the future; and for his country. He felt if all our children could be gathered into our Sunday schools we could drive out all evil. One of the essential conditions of successful Sunday school teaching was that it should not be narrowminded. The teacher should be on a higher plane than this. He spoke of a Sanday school in which he had been much interested, in which there was a family represented to which they had given much, but they found with poor results; they found that a number of the family were drinkers, but there was one little girl, who after a time sickened and died, and on her death d gave evidence of being with Christ. In order to reach success one must understand our mission. In the Sunday school we should teach the word of God

Reports from committees being in order, the committee to which was re ferred the report of the executive committtee, presented a written report which was made by E. D. Wells, of ('hicago, as follows :

MR. PRESIDENT : Your committee' to whom was referred the report of the Executive Committee of this Association, beg leave to submit the follow-

I We approve the report as a whole and recommend its adoption by the convention, at the same time expressing our hearty appreciation of the efficient manner in which the committee has discharged the duties of the year. II. By way of special emphasis we desire to call particular attention to a few points in that report .

1 We heartily endorse the recommendation of the committee which ap proves of the action of our delegates to the convention recently held at Atlanta, Georgia, pledging $200 to the International Sunday School Associa tion, and we carnestly unite in the special request in our executive commit-tee's report, that $75 of that amount which was reluntarily assumed by our delegates be returned to Bro. E. Payson Porter as a partial compensation for his very efficient labors as Interna tional Statistical Secretary

We further recommend to the later national Association that the International Statistical Secretary be employ ed at a fixed salary, which shall be a reasonable compensation for the work performed, and we pledge the State of Illinois for the payment of our proper portion of that amount.

We especially endorse that part of the report which recommends, so far as possible, the fixing of the time and place for holding the district convention, by the delegates while in attend unce at this convention.

3 We recommend that the executive committee make provision for sending workers to aid weak or unorganized counties, and for this purpose that they be authorized when necessary, to use such funds as may be in the tre coury of our state association for the pay ment of the expenses of such workers Your committee would also recom mend that a contribution be solicited from every county in the state for the state work, the minimum amount of which shall be one half cent per member contributing, at the same time, urging the counties to provoke one another to good works' in the liberality of their contributions in excess of the ninimum sum named

1 We desire to place prominently before the convention that part of the report which relates to bouse to house visitation, and to urge its practical adoption in every county and township in the State

We heartily endorse the recommend ation of the committee in regard to the organization of Normal Classes, for the purpose of a more systematic study of the Buok, and of the methods of articularly conspicuous from the second ing trust, at the same time, beyond all methods we commend a thorough knowledge of the Word of God -cx perimental as well as intellectual—as the only sure foundation for effective

He said knownow togot good gift and you children, we should begin with the children, and implant within them an avoidance of drink which never can be overcome. There is a notion sometimes that we and afterwards, if it has run astray morally, we should struggle to reclaim it-but better never let it go astray. He said that he was glad to see in the audience rillions, emblems of temperance work, but he hoped there coupled with it the truths of the bible. The best temperance lesson should go out from the church, and the best pledges are those which rely on God's promises. The sign of the cross will

Mr. Lawson is one of the managers of the National Temperance Union, and is an earnest, ready worker. Singing, and Benediction by Rev.

Dr. Edwards. Adjourned to meet at 8 o'clock p. m. WEDNESDAY EVENING SESSION. The convention was called to order by President Thompson. Opening anthem by the choir Glaces, from Mozart's 12th Mass.

Devotional exercises were conducted by J. McK. Peeples, of Shawneetown.

Singing by the choir. Rev. G. Anderson, D. D., of Chicago, spoke on "The Conditions of Successful S. S. Teaching." He said after reading some of the statistics presented to his convention, he was more hepeful for the future; and for his country. He felt if a teachers' meeting. These meetings should be gathered into the held at stated periods, the latter part of the our Sunday schools we could drive out week, in some central place, in suitable room. our Sunday schools we could drive out all evil. One of the essential conditions of successful Sunday school teaching was that it should not be narrowminded. The teacher should be on a higher plane than this. He spoke of a in the perseverance of the saints, or that the Sunday school in which he had been much interested, in which there was a family represented to which they had given much, but they found with poor Which, on raction, was referred to a results; they found that a number of three Committee J. of the family were drinkers, but there was one little girl, who after a time sickened and died, and on her death d gave evidence of being with Christ. In order to reach success one must understand our mission. In the Sunday school we should teach the word of God pure and simple. It is not the place to teach science and literature. These must be kept in subordination to the Gospel of Christ. We should be careful not to seek out allegorical truths, which no one else than ourselves sec. We should have no doubtful interpretations, or efforts to make all the passages of scripture teach certain truths. need not attempt to improve on God's the real meaning of the scriptures, and if you cannot interest the children in this, you cannot interest them at all .--They can be interested without stories from the newspapers.

If we teach them the word of God pure and simple how are you to become prepared for it. Then if we wish to inderstand the bible just take hold and work out its meaning Then we should read all we can gather from anthorities not only one, but several, and when the Drs. differ the bible student will have to decide the different passages for himself. The teacher must then know how to put or present what has been studied. If the subject is well understood, generally, it will be clearly presented, but there are those who need special efforts to fit them to teach. must not present too much, or too little, in this, indement must be exercised.

Another condition of success is that we must love what we teach. And an other that we must love children. We must not underrate the capabilities of children. He closed by saying that this was a great work or these delegates would not be here. He hoped their standard would yet be put up higher.

CARTER H. HARRISON, of Chicago, who is probably convinced by this time that his constituency will put up with no such outrageous nonsense as that which he voted for the other day-for a re-opening of the Presidential imbroglio by a one-sided investigation—to-day, as a question of privilege, offered a resolution in the House of Representatives. instructing the investigation committee to include the alleged election frauds in fregon and South Carolina. On a vote as to whether it was a question of privilege, no quorum responded, and "Our Carter" withdrew his resolution. Subsequently another resolution, offered by Wilson, of West Virginia, was adopted without much opposition, extending the investigation to any allegations of fraud in connection with the Presidential election in any of the States. This is substantially the very thing the Republicans of the House asked the Democratic majority to accept as an amendment when Potter's Plorida and Louisiana resolution was originally presented. and the refusal to entertain which caused all the trouble. CARTER H. HARRISON, of Chicago, who is probably convinced by this time that his constituency will put up with no such outrageous nonsense as that which he voted for the other day-for a re-opening of the Presidential imbroglio by a one-sided investigation-to-day, as a question of privilege, offered a resolution in the House of Representatives. instructing the investigation committee to include the alleged election frauds in as to whether it was a question of privilege, no quorum responded, and "Our Carter" withdrew his resolution. Subsequently another resolution, offered by Wilson, of West Virginia, was adopted without much opposition, extending the investigation to any allegations of fraud in connection with the Presidential election in any of the States. This is substantially the very thing the Republicans of the House asked the Democratic majority to accept as an amendment when Potter's Florida and Louisi ana resolution was originally presented and the refusal to entertain which caused all the trouble. It is very evident that the Mexican Democracy have heard from home .- Chirago Journal, 22. THE Cincinnati Clarette is in favor of investigating, thoroughly and fairly, all the alloged frauds in connection with the last presidential campaign, and believes the result will show that Hayes was entitled to fiftymore electoral votes than were counted for him. There seems to be a general willingness on the part of republicans to investigate.
